Areas of Expertise

Research Areas
My research focus on active elasticity and mechanics in biology. In particular, I am interested in:
- Far-from-equilibrium systems
- Dense active matter
- Elasticity and morphogenesis

Methods
High-performance computing and non-equilibrium physics methods.

Morphogen gradients induce out-of-equilibrium elastic instabilities which results in different morphological phenotypes